Accreditation

Santiago Canyon College and Santa Ana College are accredited by the Accrediting Commission for Community and Junior Colleges of the Western Association of Schools and Colleges, an institutional body recognized by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation, the U.S. Department of Education, and the Veterans Administration. Santa Ana College is also recognized by the California State Board of Nursing Education and the American Bar Association.

Documents concerning the colleges’ accreditation, licenses and approvals are maintained in the Office of the President of each college. Students wishing to examine these documents may do so by contacting the Office of the President.

District Facilities

Santiago Canyon College is situated on 82 acres at 8045 E. Chapman Avenue in Orange. It opened its first phase of classrooms in fall 1985 under the name of the Orange Campus of Rancho Santiago College. The Child Development Center opened in fall 1991 to provide childcare services.

Santa Ana College is located on approximately 63 acres at 1530 W. 17th Street in Santa Ana. The college opened in 1915 as an extension of Santa Ana High School, and has been located at its present site, in the heart of Santa Ana, since 1947.

The Orange and Centennial Education Centers each house adult continuing education programs, which provide high school diplomas, English as a Second Language and courses that contribute to career advancement.

Metropolitan area television stations also bring classes directly into the homes of many citizens through the Community College Television Consortium.

District Mission

The mission of the Rancho Santiago Community College District is to provide quality educational programs and services that address the needs of our diverse students and communities.

District Opportunity

The Rancho Santiago Community College District provides opportunities for the pursuit of excellence through educational programs and services for local residents. The purpose of these programs and services is to enhance the quality of human life by providing public access to college education. A significant number of classes are scheduled off campus each semester in order to enhance accessibility to students. The map indicates the locations of the major instructional sites within the district.
