- 10:00 a.m.-11:00 a.m. Scholarship Committee Updates (with Elizabeth Bergara and Alex Vega) This meeting will provide updates for the scholarship process using Blackbaud/Academic Works for reviewing applicants and scoring. This meeting is intended for members of the Scholarship Committee as well as any departmental committee members and/or faculty and staff who provide references. Application timelines will be discussed.
- 10:00 a.m.-11:30 a.m. Trauma and Learning (with Jody Johnson, Regina Lamourelle, and Marianne M. Laney) Have you wondered why some students rise above challenges while others become derailed at the mere thought of discomfort? After recent events, many students are struggling to get back on track but are still distracted and disorganized. This workshop will discuss the brain's response to perceived trauma and how we can support our students (and each other) on the path back to a new "normal."
- Noon-1:30 p.m. Equity in Action: Equitable Access to Textbooks (with Linda Azen Martin, Darlene Diaz, Denise Foley, Vivien Vu, Charles Kang, Karen McCoy and Seth Daugherty) Be part of the solution to help students access course textbooks. Hear from faculty and staff experts about six different options to provide equitable access to textbooks and course materials. Open Educational Resources (OER) is certainly one of these strategies, but you'll be surprised to learn that there is so much more available that you can immediately utilize. The following will be covered during this seminar:
- High Cost of Textbooks
 - Overview of Textbook Options/Strategies
 - SCC Bookstore Option
 - SCC Library Course Reserves Option
 - SCC On Campus Support Services
 - Textbook Publisher Option
 - Third-Party Vendor Access to Textbooks Option
 - Internet Archive Option
 - OER Option
 - SCC Case Study: Early OER Adoption and Authoring an OER Mathematics Textbook
 - SCC Case Study: Multi-institutional Collaborative OER Authoring of a Lab Manual
 - SCC Case Study: Adopting and Using OER
 - Developing Your Textbook Action Plan
- Please RSVP to Linda Azen Martin: martin_linda@sccollege.edu.
- 2:00 p.m.-3:30 p.m. Trauma-Informed Teaching (with Jody Johnson, Regina Lamourelle, and Marianne M. Laney) After recent events, faculty, staff, and students are still re-creating a new version of normal. This workshop will discuss questions such as: what do you bring to the classroom that may have an effect on your students' success and, what are possible barriers to their success (and, perhaps, yours)? Introduction to ACES with an emphasis on strategic self-care for burnout management.
- Please RSVP to Marianne Laney: laney_marianne@sccollege.edu.
- 4:30 p.m.-5:00 p.m. Juggling Multiple Schedules while Teaching Remotely (with Scott Sakamoto and Vanessa Jones) Many instructors work at multiple schools. This is always a challenge and in our current remote modality, the struggles have intensified. We plan to share our scheduling strategies, hear stories from others in the same boat, and maybe help all of us learn some techniques to cope with our current situation. Please join us for an informal discussion on the trials and tribulations of teaching remotely at several schools. Ironically, this session will be held remotely via Zoom.
