

Autism Care Industry Roundtable Follow-up

	Next steps	Who?	Notes
1	Attendee list:
	Share contact information of roundtable attendees	Leila Mozaffari	enclosed with next steps
2	Guest speakers:
	Develop list of names and contact information for Industry representatives volunteering to present in classrooms	Leila Mozaffari Andy Patterson
	Provide list to Faculty/Deans/Vice Presidents/Directors at SAC and SCC as resources to use	Leila Mozaffari	enclosed with next steps
	Provide list to members of Autism Business Association to encourage broader industry participation.	Andy Patterson	enclosed with next steps
3	Autism Care Technician Certificate Program w/student internship:		(may lead into a pathway)
	Poll industry representatives (educational coordinators) to determine who would like to closely collaborate in development of certificate program that meets minimum requirements of the three nationally accredited certifications recognized by insurance companies: ABAT, RBT, and BCAT. Develop a list with their with contact information.	Andy Patterson Leila Mozaffari	Nationally accredited certifications: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Applied Behavior Analysis Technician (ABAT) by QABA Board 2) Registered Behavior Technician (RBT) by Behavior Analyst Certification Board 3) Board Certified Autism Technician (BCAT) by Behavioral Intervention Certification Council
	Provide the list of industry representatives to Faculty/Deans/Vice Presidents/Directors at SAC and SCC	Leila Mozaffari
	Initiate collaboration meeting(s) and discussion(s) resulting in development of certificate program and internships.	Interested faculty and industry representatives
4	Referrals – Professional Development:
	ABA member companies to refer current and prospective employees to SAC/SCC to upgrade skills, gain additional certificates (such as Adults with disabilities at SCC/SCE, Special Needs Certificate at SAC) and degrees, and acquire soft skills (21 st Century Work Skills).	Industry representatives	SAC and SCC as sources for professional development for employees