RESOURCES at a GLANCE

LIBRARY DATABASES

Need articles for a research paper? SmartSearch is the premier search box for searching across multiple databases for books, articles, and more.

ONLINE CATALOG

Looking for a book on a research topic? Just want to read for fun or watch a movie? The online catalog lists all the books and media we own; search our catalog for thousands of items.

COURSE (TEXTBOOK) RESERVES

Need to borrow a textbook? No problem. Many textbooks are held on reserve at the circulation desk; ask us for help in locating the one you need.

REFERENCE SERVICES

Librarians are available to help you with your research needs during all open hours; don't hesitate to ask for help.

ASK-A-LIBRARIAN

Do you have a question? Chat with a librarian. Just head to the Library website at sccollege.edu/library and chat with us during open hours on our Ask-a-Librarian widget.

LIBRARY INSTRUCTION

The Library provides information workshops on creating citations in MLA, APA and Chicago/Turabian styles, finding articles, searching the Web, primary source documents and much more. Ask your instructor or a librarian about them, or sign-up online using the library workshop icon on the library website.

VIDEO TUTORIALS

The library has video tutorials on topics ranging from MLA formatting to finding articles using the library databases. You can locate them under Help on the library navigation menu.

CREDIT CLASSES

We have 1-unit credit classes offered most semesters that will transform you into a lifelong research expert.
