Model United Nations is POLT 150 at SCC

Political Science 150 offers students the opportunity to learn about global issues and international relations by participating in simulations of the United Nations.

By participating in MUN conferences, students gain important skills that are necessary to succeed both academically and professionally.

These skills include:

- Interpersonal Communication
- Rapport Building
- Public Speaking
- Diplomacy & Conflict Resolution
- Independent Research
- Policy & Resolution Writing

In addition to learning valuable skills, MUN provides students with once in a lifetime opportunities. Last year's team travelled to Washington, D.C. and New York.
