

Welcome to the Rancho Santiago Community College District online orientation system! The online orientation is designed for first time or returning students to our colleges. This new student orientation will provide information about the college's student services, special programs, and policies. Orientation is REQUIRED for all students. Successfully completing the orientation will allow you to register at an earlier date and time.

If you are a continuing, returning, or transfer student you are welcome to complete this orientation however you may need additional assistance from a counselor in person to answer your specific questions when planning your next semester.

In order to complete the online orientation you need to have completed at least one of the following:

- The English and/or Math Placement Tests
- Met with a counselor for an Alternative Course Placement/Prerequisite Clearance
- Met with a counselor for an Exemption Form

How to navigate the online program:

Choose and complete each program segment from the Main Menu. A check mark will identify which segments you've completed and which remain to be viewed.

Videos are placed throughout the orientation. Standard play, pause, and stop buttons control video playback.

You will encounter Checks on Learning embedded within each content segment. You must answer these questions correctly in order to be given credit for completing the segment. Answer the question incorrectly and you will have to view the segment
