NEW BUSINESS & UPDATES
1. Definition of Success Update (15 Minutes)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Corinna Evett reported: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Definition of Success: The revised definition was forwarded to the GP Academic Cluster for additional input. A formal definition will be put forward once all have reviewed. ○ Vision for Success Local Goal 5 Update: Recommendation was to match the statewide goal was presented to College Council. EMP and PIE recommended to 20%; SS&E recommended to 30%. Following discussion on SCC's commitment to reduce equity gaps, College Council approved 40%.
2. Equity Plan (30 Minutes)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Joseph Alonzo reported: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ 2019-2020 Equity Activity Requests: Thirteen equity activity requests were submitted. The sub-committee, comprised of administrators, faculty, classified, and students, met and reviewed the requests. A total of $222,400 was allocated. Only one activity was not funded because the activity applied to all SCC students, not a specific equity group.

3. Vision for Success (30 Minutes)

- Equity Plan Update : The committee reviewed the current baseline data and goals for the overall student population and disproportionately impacted student populations. It was noted that the equity identified groups have changed and as a result the metrics have changed. Additional equity student groups can be added to the portal. There was a conversation with thoughtful consideration for additional student groups to add to the portal.
- SCC Student Equity Executive Summary 2019-2020: The Executive Summary will be available on the website for review. Corinna will initiate an email for discussion on the 2019-2022 SCC Student Equity Plan (SEP) and attach related documents.

- CCCCO Vision for Success Goals: Refer to the SCC website for a list of SCC's Vision for Success Goals. 2016/17 is the baseline year. There was discussion on how to educate equity groups on the services available to students and where to find them. The committee agreed an online comprehensive list of intervention services needs to be available for students.

Comments included:

- The website needs to be inclusive of all services available.
 - Canvas homepage lists some services
 - Family Night distributes a hard copy list of services
- Bakersfield Community College has an extensive drop down list with links under Student Services.
- Fullerton College a description of services listed and includes links to services webpage.

4. Begin discussion of committee responsibilities and how we might work toward fulfilling them. (15 Minutes)

- Corinna asked the committee to brainstorm on ideas of how we can implement, prioritize, and address the new committee responsibilities and to come prepared to discuss at the next meeting.

5. Other

The meeting adjourned at 2:55p.m.

MOTION: Ruth Babeshoff moved to include homeless, formerly incarcerated, undocumented and single parents to the portal. Tiffany Gause seconded and the motion passed.

- The committee will conduct an online vote on the motion to approve the 2019-2020 SEP no later than Sunday, April 28.

MOTION: Ruth Babeshoff moved to update the Student Services website, Denise Foley seconded and the motion passed.

- Syed Rizvi will follow up to find out who maintains the Student Services webpage.

- Corinna will forward the revised SS&E mission and responsibilities
- Committee Responsibilities will be added as an agenda item at the next meeting on May 20.
