Academic Probation Pilot Program -	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Lisa will be going on maternity beginning in November and will not be attending the October meeting but will ask an English instructor to attend. Because of the absence of several committee members at this meeting it was asked that suggestions for a new co-chair be discussed at the October meeting. Non-tenured faculty may also be considered. John introduced Chen Chen Julian, ASG Senator for Student Success, as the new student committee member. John distributed the Student Services and Academic Affairs Budget Reduction Impacts. This information was shared with Academic

Ruth Babeshoff	Senate and will be discussed at the next board meeting along with Administrative Services and OEC's. Reductions in funding to DSPS, Matriculation and EOPS are higher than Sacramento originally stated. Also, stimulus funding is unknown at this time. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Counseling office will be piloting a new Academic Probation Program beginning in October. When a student receives a probation letter they will be able to go online to make an appointment to attend an Academic Probation Workshop. Counselors will review probation policies, reasons for probation and improvement strategies. Holds will be released after attending the workshop. There will be one counselor for 20 students.
