

Santiago Canyon College

The Office of Student Equity and Success, Office of Student Life and Leadership, along with the Associated Student Government (ASG), presents: Multi-Lingual Open Mic

CALLING ALL POETS, Spoken Word Artists, PERFORMERS, WRITERS, AND AUDIENCE MEMBERS ALIKE

Share a creative writing or "untold story" in a welcoming, laid-back and safe environment and listen to others.

FREE FOOD*

Multi-Lingual

POETRY

Open Mic

Bring your own creative writing (or read a favorite piece) in any language.

Please provide translations for non-English writings.

To be a presenter or for more information email: scc_studentlife@sccollege.edu

October 12, 2017 | 1:00~2:30PM | T-107

*FREE FOOD: In honor of Hispanic Heritage Month, we will highlight a Latin culinary delight. Pupusas will be served to the first 50 attendees. Pupusas are a traditional Salvadorian dish of a thick corn tortilla stuffed with a savory filling (cheese and beans, pork, or chicken).