

LIBRARY WORKSHOPS: OBJECTIVES

- Creating Citations

- Learning Objectives

- Students will be able to identify the elements required to create a citation.
- Students will use the online citation builder NoodleTools to create citations in MLA, APA, or Chicago/Turabian citation style.

- Evaluating Internet Sources

- Learning Objectives

- Students will be able to apply advanced search techniques.
- Students will be able to evaluate Internet sources using the currency, relevancy, authority, accuracy, and purpose criteria frame work.

- Finding Articles

- Learning Objectives

- Students will be able to find articles and other content on a topic by using the SmartSearch Discovery tool or by searching a selected periodicals database.
- Students will be able to differentiate between scholarly and popular periodical articles.
- Students will be able to develop search terms that yield relevant search results.
- Students will be able to limit/filter search results.
- Students will be able to evaluate the relevancy of their search results.

- Finding Streaming Video/Creating Film Clips

- Learning Objectives

- Students will use a Library search tool to find streaming video content.
- Students will be able to develop search terms that yield relevant search results.
- Students will be able to evaluate the relevancy of their search results.
- Students will be able to apply limits to video search results and navigate a streaming video.
- Students will be able to create a film clip from a streaming video.

- Literary Criticism Sources

- Learning Objectives

- Students will be able to find articles and other content for a literary criticism assignment by using the SmartSearch Discovery tool or by searching a selected database(s).
 - Students will be able to develop search terms that yield relevant search results.
 - Students will be able to limit/filter search results.
 - Students will be able to evaluate the relevancy of their search results.

- Primary Secondary Sources

- Learning Objectives

- Students will be able to identify characteristics of primary and secondary sources.
 - Students will be able to identify examples of primary sources and secondary sources.
 - Students will be able to find primary sources by using Library search tools as well as the Internet.

Revised: December 1, 2016