Access NoodleTools via this icon on the SCC Library webpage (www.sccollege.edu/library).

1. Either Sign in if you already have an account, or REGISTER to create a new (free) account.

2. Click on the green  tab in the upper left hand corner of the screen.

3. Enter a project title, choose citation style, and choose "Advanced" citation level (most appropriate for college research);  form.

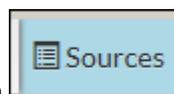

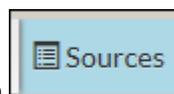

Project title
For example, "History 101 report on George Washington"

Citation style  MLA (MLA Handbook, 8th ed.)
 APA (APA Publication Manual, 6th ed.)
 Chicago/Turabian (Chicago Manual of Style, 16th ed.)

Citation level:  Starter: Introduction to citing sources with 6 basic forms
 Junior: A small set of simplified citation forms
 Advanced: Comprehensive coverage of the style guides, 70+ forms

4. Note various functions available in NoodleTools; click on the gray "account" tab in the upper right hand corner and scroll down to  for more information. OR just skip to number 5.

5. To create your first, or next citation, click on  in the middle of the toolbar at the top of the NoodleTools screen.

6. Click on the green  tab.

7. Click on the box that indicates where you located the information you want to cite:

Create new citation

Where is it?

Database Website Print or in-hand Viewed/heard live File, app, e-book Other ▾

Click the option above that describes how you accessed this source.

Electronic/Online Nonperiodicals Unpublished
Periodicals Audio, Video, Images Legal and Government Sources

8. Then answer the question What is it? (that you want to cite); this is a partial list of options. For example, click on journal:

What is it?

|                              |  |                                   |
|------------------------------|--|-----------------------------------|
| Original Content in Database | Cartoon or Comic Strip                   | Review                            |
| Conference Proceedings       | Chart, Table, Infographic (Born Digital) | Unpublished Paper or Data         |
| Journal                      | Film or Video Recording                  | Court Case                        |
| Magazine                     | Lecture, Speech or Reading               | Government Publication            |
| Newsletter                   | Map or Chart (Born Digital)              | State Bill or Resolution          |
| Newspaper                    | Map or Chart, Published or in an Archive | State Committee Hearing/Testimony |

9. Complete the template on the next screen by inserting the elements of your citation. These elements are found in the source you are citing (for example, the journal article you found in one of our library databases, or a book that you have found on one of our library shelves). In order to insure accuracy in citing, carefully read each blue information “tip” button that appears to the right of each box. Fields (boxes) with a red asterisk must be filled in.

10. Once you have entered all the elements of your citation, and included an annotation in the annotation field if one is required for your assignment, click on the blue “save” tab at the top of the template.

11. If you have clicked on “save,” click on  on the next screen and then scroll down and click on “Print/Export to Word.”

12. Open the downloaded .docx by clicking on the tab in the lower, left hand corner of the screen. Your list of citations will appear in the citation style you chose (MLA, APA, or Chicago Turabian). Enable editing. Save the document to a storage unit, such as a USB drive or the cloud, and then cut and paste it to the end of your assignment.
