Verification of Other Dependents

Do you have dependents (other than your children or spouse) who live with you and who receive more than half of their support from you, now and through June 30, 2020?

Your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was processed as an Independent student by the Department of Education, because you answered “YES” to the above question:

If you answered the above question incorrectly; and the answer should be “NO”, you must go back to your FAFSA at www.fafsa.gov and correct it to “NO”. You are a Dependent student and will need to provide your parent’s information on your FAFSA. You will need to create an FSA ID for one of your parent’s and provide all information in the Parent section. Notify the Santiago Canyon College (SCC) Financial Aid Office (FAO) once you have updated your FAFSA.

If the answer to the above question is “YES”, on the space provided below, complete the information for your dependent(s). Include your dependent(s) full name, relationship to you, age, and name of the college your dependent(s) will be attending during the 2019-2020 academic year (if attending more than half-time). You must attach a copy of the first page of your 2018 federal tax return with their name(s) listed as an exemption(s). You may also provide official county, state, or any government documentation listing your dependents in lieu of tax returns.

Non-Discrimination Policy

The Rancho Santiago Community College District is committed to equal opportunity in educational programs, employment, and all access to institutional programs and activities. The District, and each individual who represents the District, shall provide access to its services, classes, and programs without regard to national origin, religion, age, gender, gender identity, gender expression, race or ethnicity, color, medical condition, genetic information, ancestry, sexual orientation, marital status, physical or mental disability, pregnancy, or military and veteran status, or because he or she is perceived to have one or more of the foregoing characteristics, or based on association with a person or group with one or more of these actual or perceived characteristics. The Chancellor shall establish administrative procedures that ensure all members of the college community can present complaints regarding alleged violations of this policy and have their complaints heard in accordance with the Title 5 regulations and those of other agencies that administer state and federal laws regarding nondiscrimination. No District funds shall ever be used for membership, or for any participation involving financial payment or contribution on behalf of the District or any individual employed by or associated with it, to any private organization whose membership practices are discriminatory on the basis of national origin, religion, age, gender, gender identity, gender expression, race, color, medical condition, genetic information, ancestry, sexual orientation, marital status, physical or mental disability, pregnancy, or military and veteran status, or because he or she is perceived to have one or more of the foregoing characteristics, or because of his or her association with a person or group with one or more of these actual or perceived characteristics. Inquiries regarding compliance and/or grievance procedures may be directed to: Rancho Santiago Community College District Title IX Officer and Section 504/ADA Coordinator John Didion 2323 N.
