SOCIAL SECURITY DISCREPANCY RESOLUTION FOR STUDENT

Your name, Social Security number (SSN), or date of birth that you on listed your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) does not match with the Social Security Administration records. Please refer back to your FAFSA to determine which part of the information you listed for yourself is incorrect. Then you must update your FAFSA with the correct information by logging in to your FAFSA at www.fafsa.gov and clicking "Corrections on the Web." Be sure the information you are entering matches the information on your SSN card. You will not be eligible for financial aid funds until the discrepancy is resolved and your FAFSA has been reprocessed with the updated information.

However, if the name, SSN and date of birth are correct on the FAFSA, you should contact the Social Security Administration to update their records with the correct information. The SSA can be contacted at 1-800-772-1314 or online at www.ssa.gov.

Please Note: If you used a Tax I.D. # in lieu of an SSN, or if you have an SSN that was issued for "work only" (see example below) this is not considered an acceptable SSN. If you do not have an SSN, or a "work only" SSN, then you cannot use the FAFSA to apply for federal financial aid. However, you may qualify for state financial aid. To apply for state financial aid, please go to our web page at <https://www.scollege.edu/student-services/financialaid/Pages/default.aspx>. Click on "Apply for Financial Aid". Click on "CCPG Fee Waiver" for a fee waiver. You may also apply for the California Dream Act Application.

Example of a "work only" SSN:
