Ineligible Program Enrollment Resolution

Do not return this form to Financial Aid until you have completed Step 1 and Step 2

Explanation: Your “program” or “educational goal” is your declared major on your student record (for example: Liberal Arts, Psychology, etc.) We are unable to process your financial aid because your current educational goal is considered an ineligible program according to the Department of Education (DOE). Federal regulations require students be enrolled in an education program approved by the DOE. These education programs may include coursework used towards obtaining an AA/AS degree or an approved certificate (see page 2 for approved certificates). Please review your current educational program and update it with the SCC Admissions and Records Office if it is incorrect.

STEP 1

Update your education program with the Admissions and Records Office. You must complete this Request to Change Course of Study form and email it to admissions@sccollege.edu.

STEP 2

After you complete Step 1 and the SCC Admissions & Records Office has confirmed your program has been updated, check all the boxes below that apply to you and sign and date before you return this form to the SCC Financial Aid Office.

I confirm that I have updated my educational goal with Admissions and Records.

What is your updated educational goal? (Choose one of the following.)

AA/AS Degree
